NIGHT IN A BOX: A BENEFIT FOR THE HOMELESS Utah Girl Scouts camp out in boxes overnight

SALT LAKE CITY, UT . November 4, 2011 . Utah is no stranger to cold, rainy, and snowy nights. As we head into the winter season, unfortunately some Utah residents have to face those tough, unrelenting conditions every night.

Tonight, some Utah Girl Scouts are learning exactly what it means to be homeless by spending the entire night in boxes along a busy Utah street. Their goal is to raise awareness about homelessness in our communities.

The Girl Scouts will also be accepting donations of warm coats, jackets, hats and gloves, blankets, sleeping bags, canned food, and hygiene items.

What: Night in a Box

Where: 1105 North Washington, Ogden
(First Ascension Lutheran)

When: 7:00 p.m. . 9:00 a.m.

About Girl Scouts of Utah

We Make a Difference in Your Community

Girl Scouts provides a unique experience where a girl finds:

- Courage by pushing beyond her perceived limits to reach for her dreams
- Confidence by discovering her strengths in a fun, girl-only, supportive environment
- Character by learning about herself, her community, her world

You've trusted us for nearly 100 years! Girl Scouts is open to all girls grades K-12 and is recognized for innovative leadership programs for today's girls and young women.

Girl Scouts of Utah builds girls of courage, confidence, and character who make the world a better place. To join, volunteer, or support Girl Scouts of Utah, visit www.gsutah.org or call (800) 678-7809.
