

News Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Interview and photo opportunities available

Contact: Kabi Eaton, Director of Communications
(801)716-5135 office / (801)450-9204 cell
keaton@gsutah.org

Annie Cutler, Communications Specialist
(801)716-5137 office / (385)226-6162 cell
acutler@gsutah.org

GIRLFEST: GIRL SCOUTS OF UTAH'S PARTY OF THE CENTURY

SALT LAKE CITY, UT . September 22, 2011 . Girl Scouts of Utah is calling all girls to party with GSU and Radio Disney this Saturday, September 24th at Sugar House Park. GirlFest+ is sure to be a fun-filled day for the entire family. If the live music doesn't get you pumped up, there'll be Minute to Win It games, slacklining, and hands-on skills and drills training with the University of Utah Women's Basketball team. Girl Scouts will celebrate 100 years in 2012 and GirlFest+ kicks of the fun!

GirlFest+ will highlight the Girl Scout Leadership Experience with activities for girls to discover new skills and strengths, connect with other girls and their community, and take action to make their neighborhood, community, and the world a better place.

What: GirlFest

When: Saturday, September 24th 10:00a.m. . 2:00p.m.

Where: Sugar House Park . Hidden Grove Meadow

About Girl Scouts of Utah

We Make a Difference in Your Community

Girl Scouts provides a unique experience where a girl finds:

- Courage by pushing beyond her perceived limits to reach for her dreams
- Confidence by discovering her strengths in a fun, girl-only, supportive environment
- Character by learning about herself, her community, her world

You've trusted us for nearly 100 years! Girl Scouts is open to all girls grades K-12 and is recognized for innovative leadership programs for today's girls and young women.

Girl Scouts of Utah builds girls of courage, confidence, and character who make the world a better place. To join, volunteer, or support Girl Scouts of Utah, visit www.gsutah.org or call (800) 678-7809.

###