Beginning programs are for girls with little to no horseback riding experience. Lessons may include: lead, walk, jog, mount, dismount, turn, stop, rein position, pasture trail ride, groom, and basic horse care.

Intermediate programs are for girls that have previously attended a one-week riding program at camp, or have had eight full hours of Western riding experience outside of camp. Girls in intermediate programs must be able to lead a horse comfortably, ride in an arena without a lead line, be able to control a horse a walk or jog, ride without stirrups at a walk, and demonstrate correct reining position. Lessons may include: saddle club, lead, walk, jog, lope, arena drills, mount, dismount, turn, stop, trail, groom, and basic horse care.

Advanced programs are for girls that have previously attended more than one week long riding program at camp, or have had 16 full hours of Western riding experience outside of camp. Girls in advanced riding programs must be able to mount and dismount without assistance, turn, stop, demonstrate ability to walk, jog, and lope a horse with control, ride without stirrups at a walk and jog, and demonstrate a secure balanced position. Lessons may include: saddle club, walk, jog, lope, arena drills, barrels and pole bending at a lope, low level jumping, trail, pack trip, showdeo, groom and horse care.

Girls who register for any of our equestrian programs will spend a total of 8 hours per week at the stables, unless otherwise noted. Lessons include riding instruction, stables maintenance (mucking stalls), and ground school (learning about the animals and tack and how to care for them). Horseback riding is a sport that requires physical coordination, balance, and the ability to follow directions. Our programs are described as Beginning, Intermediate, and Advanced levels. Campers in any equestrian program will be grouped according to experience level and lessons will be geared towards the least experienced rider. For the safety of our riders and health of our horses, Trefoil Ranch is able to accommodate riders up to 200 pounds.
