GSU's Daisy's Circle and Annual Appeal

Named after Girl Scout founder Juliette "Daisy" Gordon Low, Daisy's Circle is Girl Scouts of Utah's monthly giving program designed to cultivate philanthropy among friends, members, and volunteers of Girl Scouts. Funds raised through Daisy's Circle provide financial assistance for girls and volunteers, support outreach programs, and more.

The Annual Appeal is a way for Girl Scout families and members to invest in girls' futures by financially supporting programs, camp improvements, financial assistance, volunteer support, and other critical services. A donation to this campaign directly impacts your girl and all girls in Utah.

Inspiring Women Share Their Stories at Girl Empowered

Rebecca Chavez-Houck (pictured at left), Gail Miller, Liz Adeola, and the sisters behind Beauty Redefined shared their stories and inspired girls from Utah and across the country during Girl Empowered September 19. We're so grateful these amazing women could join us for such an important event for girls. This event would not have been possible without the support of Larry H. Miller Charities. Thank you for helping us put on such a wonderful virtual event!

GSU Alum Featured on National Girl Scouts Blog

GSU alum Amber was featured in a GSUSA blog post about how she is changing the world through STEM! Amber started a company (SHERO) with her advising professor and two other students at the University of Utah to create biodegradable menstrual pads for women worldwide. Amber was first introduced to engineering through Girl Scouts and was a co-leader for a STEM troop while she finished her graduate studies.

Help Girls Meet in Person!

Earlier this year when in-person events and activities were canceled due to COVID-19, many troops transitioned to virtual meetings. Since then, parts of Utah have moved into the yellow (low) and green (minimal) risk levels, allowing for in-person meetings and activities with strict guidelines to ensure everyone's safety. With the new guidelines, troops are unable to meet in members' homes, and other indoor locations that make social distancing possible, like rec centers, are unavailable to them. If you have a space that would allow troops to meet safely, we want to hear from you! Indoors or out, if you would like to share your space with Girl Scouts, let us know!

Run for It: How to Run for Local Office
October 27 @ 2:30 p.m. MT

We will discuss how more women running for local office benefits local economies — as well as the world — and enjoy an inspiring discussion that will empower women with the tools, language, and perspective to run for local elected office. Adults and high school girls (Girl Scout Seniors and Ambassadors) are all welcome to join us for this special live virtual event! Unable to attend live? Not to worry! Register now and you'll be able to view the playback when it is available.

Support Girl Scouts of Utah

The world needs Girl Scouts now more than ever. These are extremely challenging times, but it is also the perfect time for Girl Scouts to shine! We have always been known for our ability to try new things and face new challenges, and even though these challenges can sometimes be overwhelming, our girls and volunteers are facing them with optimism and creativity.

We remain steadfast in our commitment to making Girl Scouts accessible to all girls, regardless of their family's financial situation. It is through the generous support of our donors and partners that we are able to provide financial assistance to girls for programs, camp, and even their yearly membership.

We have been building girls of courage, confidence, an character for over 100 years. With your continued help, we will continue for years to come.
