Leadership Conference Connects Girls with Inspiring Women

We are so excited about our Girl Empowered 2020 event! This free virtual conference is for older girls and interested adults looking to advocate for themselves and others, and create positive changes in their community. The day will include inspirational speakers and sessions, including:

Gail Miller, businesswoman and owner of the Larry H. Miller Group of Companies

- Lindsay and Lexie Kite, founders of Beauty Redefined
- Liz Adeola, Emmy Award-winning journalist at PBS Utah
- Former state representative Rebecca Chavez-Houck
- Mo Beck, professional rock climber and paraclimbing champion

Huge thank to you to Larry H. Miller Charities for underwriting this event and making it possible for girls to hear from these inspiring leaders and changemakers.

Camp-In for a Cause was a Virtual Success!

We are happy to report that our Camp-In for a Cause virtual fundraiser was a huge success, raising over $20,000! Almost 100 tickets were sold, and over 70 women were able to join us the morning of August 15. Courtney Carver kicked off the morning, followed by uplifting sessions in heart-opening yoga, active listening, River Writing, how to create an anti-racist home, courageous leadership, and more. The event reached beyond Utah, bringing together women from Arizona, Georgia, Maryland, Minnesota, and Texas for this memorable morning.

We're excited to return to Camp Cloud Rim next year for Camping for a Cause. Save the date for August 13 and 14, 2021!

GSU Alum Featured on National Girl Scouts Blog

GSU alum Morgan was featured in a GSUSA blog post about Gold Award Girl Scouts changing the world through STEM! While studying at the University of Utah, Morgan completed a project focused on engineering universal “off-road” attachments for pediatric walkers to increase access to outdoor activities for children with disabilities. Morgan recognized the impact of Girl Scouts, introducing her to STEM and helping her build courage.

Help Girls Meet in Person!

Earlier this year when in-person events and activities were canceled due to COVID-19, many troops transitioned to virtual meetings. Since then, parts of Utah have moved into the yellow (low) and green (minimal) risk levels, allowing for in-person meetings and activities with strict guidelines to ensure everyone's safety. With the new guidelines, troops are unable to meet in members' homes, and other indoor locations that make social distancing possible, like rec centers, are unavailable to them. If you have a space that would allow troops to meet safely, we want to hear from you! Indoors or out, if you would like to share your space with Girl Scouts, let us know!

Girl Scout Campfire Chats for Women and GS Alums

Campfire Chats bring together powerful Girl Scout alums and supporters at the top of their fields to educate and inspire people who are striving for a better world. These virtual events showcase a variety of topics, from cooking to financial literacy and career advice.

Upcoming Campfire Chat
The Truly Great Outdoors
September 22 @ 11:00 a.m. MT

In a time that is full of unprecedented stress and anxiety for so many of us, we could all use the healing power of Mother Nature. Join the Girl Scout Network in partnership with The North Face for an exploration of the mental wellness benefits of getting outside, as well as the importance of creating space for everyone to experience the power of the outdoors. Adults and high school girls (Girl Scout Seniors and Ambassadors) are all welcome to join us for this special live virtual event!

- Moderator Lauren Guthrie, Vice President of Diversity and Inclusion, VF Corporation
- Panelists
 - Kim Moore Bailey, CEO of Youth Outside
 - Maureen Beck, Professional Climber
 - I Ling Thompson, Senior Vice President of Marketing and Communications, Trust for Public Land

Support Girl Scouts of Utah

The world needs Girl Scouts now more than ever. These are extremely challenging times, but it is also the perfect time for Girl Scouts to shine! We have always been known for our ability to try new things and face new challenge, and even though these challenges can sometimes be overwhelming, our girls and volunteers are facing them with optimism and creativity.

We remain steadfast in our commitment to making Girl Scouts accessible to all girls, regardless of their family's financial situation. It is through the generous support of our donors and partners that we are able to provide financial assistance to girls for programs, camp, and even their yearly membership.

We have been building girls of courage, confidence, an character for over 100 years. With your continued help, we will continue for years to come.
