

Nominations for Board of Directors: Officers

Term: 2021 - 2023

Leslie Egan

Nominated to serve a second term as Board Chair

Leslie Egan is a native Utahn where she graduated from Brigham Young University with a degree in social work. For the last several years she has volunteered in the after school program for refugee children at the Hser Ner Moo center. She has been involved in community service through various school boards, University of Utah LDS Institute and has 20 years of experience teaching the Love and Logic parenting program. Leslie is committed to the mission of developing courage, confidence and character in girls through activities and mentors provided by the Girl Scout program.

Babs De Lay

Nominated to serve a third term as Board Secretary

Babs DeLay is a full-time licensed real estate broker/REALTOR® in Utah and is the owner/principal broker of Urban Utah Homes and Estates. She specializes in senior citizen estates, downtown and east-side residential property listings and sales, new development housing projects and retirement homes in St. George/Washington County. Babs has served on several boards and is affiliated with many national and local organizations. She is a Lifetime Girl Scout and has dedicated time to Girl Scouting through many avenues including as an Assistant Troop leader and Winter Camp Co-Director. Babs joined the GSU Board of Directors in 2016.

Nominations for Board of Directors: Members-at-Large

Term: 2021 - 2023

Annie Evans

Nominated to serve a second term as Board Member-at-Large

Annie Evans started her incredible professional journey with an internship at a local Seattle radio station where she formed a fast friendship with then nationally-syndicated Delilah. That opportunity quickly evolved into becoming the show's promotions manager, assuming responsibility for the show's online and offline presence. Shortly thereafter her scope expanded to include four additional syndicated radio shows (a fun aside is that one was the iconic Marie Osmond, perhaps foretelling Annie's significant impact on our Utah community). Currently Annie is Event Network's Vice President of Culture where she inspires the hearts and minds of the company's 1,500+ team members, hundreds of thousands of customers, and 100+ business partners.

Maria S. Farrington

Nominated to serve a second term as Board Member-at-Large

Maria is an independent non-profit consultant with extensive experience in leadership at key non-profit organizations in the Salt Lake City area. Maria has served on the Salt Lake Community College (SLCC) Board of Trustees and is currently the Board Chairwoman of the Board at SLCC. She has served as President & Executive Director of Holy Cross Ministries, CEO of Discovery Gateway Children's Museum, and Executive Director of the Eccles Annenberg Education Reform Initiative. During her tenure at Discovery Gateway Children's Museum Maria helped sponsor a Juliette Troop. She was a girl scout in Corpus Christi Texas and is committed to helping underserved girls realize their potential. Maria joined the GSU Board of Directors in 2019.

2021 Nomination Slate

Nominations for Board of Directors: Members-at-Large

Term: 2021 - 2023

Brandi Maull

Nominated to serve a second term as Board Member-at-Large

Brandi Maull is a Senior Scientist at 6th Wave Innovations Corporation. She has worked as a chemist throughout her career including research and development for explosives detection and analytical testing for vitamins and protein powders. Brandi currently serves as Board Secretary for Young Professionals Salt Lake City (YPSLC), an organization designed to engage and connect members to the SLC community and to one another. She has collaborated with the Salt Lake City Boys and Girls Club to host a tour of her laboratory and has given several career day presentations at Guadalupe School. Brandi received her B.S. in Biochemistry from Syracuse University, and her M.S. in Chemistry from University of Nevada, Reno.

Leah Murray

Nominated to serve a second term as Board Member-at-Large

Leah Murray is a professor of Political Science at Weber State University, specializing in American Politics. Murray is also the Academic Director for the Walker Institute of Politics & Public Service. She is a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, League of Women Voters, the Citizens Climate Lobby, and on the Board of Directors at DaVinci Academy in Ogden. Leah is interested in developing civic efficacy in young people and is researching this through the National American Democracy Project. Leah has served as a Girl Scout Cadette Troop Leader and a Cub Scout Scoutmaster. She is currently involved in recruiting and mentoring Youth Representatives to the Board of Directors, and oversees the National Delegate selection and training process.

Steve Smith

Nominated to serve a second term as Board Member-at-Large

Steve Smith is Managing Partner at Stevenson Smith CPAs LLC in Provo. Steve has served for 12 years on the Governing Board of The Heritage Community, a non-profit that provides families with valuable, research-based, state-of-the-art therapies for at-risk youth. He has also served for over a decade as Treasurer of the CoolHotNot Corporation, a trust-based community dedicated to the sharing of real-life product experiences. He graduated from Brigham Young University with a degree in Accounting.

Nominations for Board Development Committee (BDC)

Term: 2021 - 2023

Annie Evans

Nominated to serve a first term as BDC Board Representative

Annie Evans started her incredible professional journey with an internship at a local Seattle radio station where she formed a fast friendship with then nationally-syndicated Delilah. That opportunity quickly evolved into becoming the show's promotions manager, assuming responsibility for the show's online and offline presence. Shortly thereafter her scope expanded to include four additional syndicated radio shows (a fun aside is that one was the iconic Marie Osmond, perhaps foretelling Annie's significant impact on our Utah community). Currently Annie is Event Network's Vice President of Culture where she inspires the hearts and minds of the company's 1,500+ team members, hundreds of thousands of customers, and 100+ business partners.

Ann McCoy

Nominated to serve a second term as BDC Community Representative

Ann McCoy is the Director of Waterford Fund & Alumni Relations at The Waterford School. Before joining the Waterford School, Ann worked in the Institutional Advancement Office at Westminster College as Director of Research, Strategy, and Management. Ann has served on several committees including the Diversity Council, Business Relationship Committee, and Strategic Planning Council at Westminster. She has served on the Association of Professional Researchers for Advancement (APRA) Utah Chapter Board, and the Junior League of Salt Lake City Board. A Girl Scout since childhood, Ann is very passionate about the mission of Girl Scouts.

Nominations for Board Development Committee (BDC)

Term: 2021 - 2023

Leah Murray

Nominated to serve a second term as BDC Co-chair and BDC Board Representative

Leah Murray is a professor of Political Science at Weber State University, specializing in American Politics. Murray is also the Academic Director for the Walker Institute of Politics & Public Service. She is a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, League of Women Voters, the Citizens Climate Lobby, and on the Board of Directors at DaVinci Academy in Ogden. Leah is interested in developing civic efficacy in young people and is researching this through the National American Democracy Project. Leah has served as a Girl Scout Cadette Troop Leader and a Cub Scout Scoutmaster. She is currently involved in recruiting and mentoring Youth Representatives to the Board of Directors, and oversees the National Delegate selection and training process.

Lisa White

Nominated to serve a second term as BDC Community Representative

Lisa is a seasoned technology and marketing expert, whose career has focused on delivering the best experience to her customers, from sales support to product implementation to ongoing relationship management. Lisa has called Salt Lake City home since 2008, after leading cross-functional teams for organizations in Dallas, New York, and San Francisco. Lisa was a Brownie, Junior, Cadette, and Senior Girl Scout.