

Procedure to be followed by the person in charge at the scene:

1. Give attention to injured person(s). Secure doctor, ambulance, police, and clergy as appropriate.
2. In the event of a fatality, ALWAYS notify police first. Retain a responsible person at the scene, secure the area, and do not remove victim(s) or disturb surroundings until police have assumed authority.
3. Call the Girl Scouts of Utah's 24-hour emergency number (801) 483-3413.
4. When you call the 24-hour emergency number, provide your name, troop number, phone number you are calling from, and your home phone number. Tell the operator if this is a serious accident or a fatality.
5. The operator will relay the information to a member of the council crisis team who will then call you back.
6. The Chief Executive Officer (CEO) will make all official statements as spokesperson of the council. Do not give information on your own. Refer all media inquiries to the Chief Marketing Officer at (801) 608-7003.
7. Do not discuss the incident, place blame, or accept liability. Make no statements to the press!
8. Do not surrender parent permission slips or medical release forms to anyone except the GSU CEO.
